Dr. Herman Herzog Levy Bequest Fund, 992.30.1

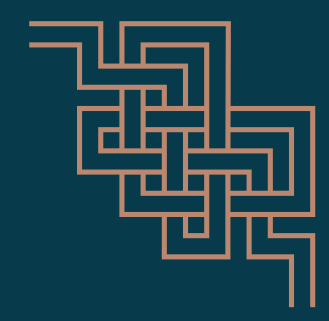

Originally possessed by C. T. Loo and later in the von Oertzen Collection, this beautiful but puzzling jade was made or reconstituted from four parts together between the 19th and 20th centuries. Greenish-white jade of openwork carving in form of felines are among the finest example of the Warring States period, and attached to one side and on the top of a vertical handle ornament, respectively, connected by a few copper plaques. The vertical handle ornament is decorated with cloud-pattern curves surrounding two elongated rectangular gold-inlaid bronze inserts in the middle of both sides.
